Julia Tai

Music Director

Praised by the Seattle Times as “poised yet passionate,” Julia Tai is one of today’s most dynamic and engaging conductors on the international stage. In November 2020, she became the first female music director in the Missoula Symphony Orchestra’s history. Her career has led to acclaimed performances and rehearsals with the American Youth Symphony, Bakersfield Symphony, Bohuslav Martinu Philharmonic (Czech Republic), Boise Philharmonic, Brandenburger Symphoniker (Germany), Estonian National Youth Symphony (Estonia), Idaho Falls Symphony, Jackson Symphony, Lake Washington Symphony, Lexington Philharmonic, New Symphony Orchestra (Bulgaria), Orquesta Filarmónica de la UNAM (Mexico), Orquesta Sinfónica Juvenil Carlos Chávez (Mexico), Philharmonia Northwest, and the Seattle Symphony.

As the Music Director of MSO, Ms. Tai has established a reputation for her creative programming and dedication to educational outreach and community partnerships. She has premiered new works by Peter Boyer, Anna Clyne, Tim Fain, Vivian Fung, Donald O. Johnston, and Pascal Le Boeuf. She has also initiated the Symphony Kids concert series at the Missoula Public Library, Missoula Youth Symphony side-by-side performances, Student Night @Dress Rehearsals, and Symphony in the Schools, sending symphony musicians to local high schools to perform and coach music students. She has developed partnerships with organizations such as Five Valley’s Land Trust, Missoula Public Library, Montana Natural History Center, and Logjam Presents to further deepen MSO’s relationships with its community.

Born in Taipei, Taiwan, Ms. Tai began her violin studies at age four and piano at eight. She received her Bachelor and Master of Music degrees from the University of Southern California Thornton School of Music, where she was awarded “Outstanding Graduate” in 2004. She holds a Doctor of Musical Arts degree in orchestral conducting from the University of Washington. She lives with her daughter Natalie, who plays the piano, and their dog Humphrey Bear.

Francesca Mehrotra

Francesca Mehrotra is an Indian-American singer / actor who finds her artistic home in telling stories through song. Francesca is currently playing Christine Daaé in the new off-Broadway immersive revival of The Phantom of the Opera (NYC debut) directed by Diane Paulus. Recent appearances include Caroline in Titanic at the Marriott Theatre, A Little Night Music at Ogunquit Playhouse, Johanna in Sweeney Todd with Pacific Symphony, Mabel in The Pirates of Penzance at Opera Colorado, Clara (u/s) in The Light in the Piazza at Central City Opera, Gilda in Rigoletto at Opera Colorado, and A Gentleman's Guide to Love and Murder at the Shakespeare Theatre of New Jersey. All Glory to God. francescamehrotra.com. Instagram: @francesca.mehrotra.

Jadi Rae Curtis

Formerly a Nashville-based vocalist and vocal coach, Jadi Rae so elated to be back in her beloved hometown of Missoula, Montana. With a background in jazz, theatre, and commercial vocals, she enjoys playing with her sound via the unique needs of varied genres. Jadi Rae originally left her beloved mountains to attend the prestigious Music Theatre program at Elon University. Upon graduation, she moved to Nashville, where she has written, recorded, performed, and taught fellow artists. Jadi Rae considers it a privilege and a joy to aid clients in discovering the singular nature of their voices while embracing that which makes them unique and memorable, believing that every human deserves to sing.

Matt Shingledecker

Acclaimed singer and actor Matt Shingledecker is thrilled to be performing in Montana for the very first time, one of only two states he hasn't had the privilege of visiting until now. Wyoming will be the final state! Select credits include the Broadway productions of Wicked (Fiyero), West Side Story (Tony - Featured in Arthur Laurent's Memoir "The Rest of the Story: A Life Completed", and Spring Awakening. Off-Broadway: Rent (Roger - Original Revival Cast). Tour: Les Miserables (Enjolras), Wicked (Fiyero) and Spring Awakening (Georg). West End: Homemade Fusion. Immersive: Dani Girl, Michael Arden's Adaptation of La Ronde (College Boy), The Golden Lotus, For Madmen Only, Private Lives, The Zoo Story. TV/Film: Blue Bloods, Regis & Kelly (Regis's Farewell Episode), Seaside, Future 38, Sweet Parents, Grind, Eugenia & John, Barflies. Recently opened the first of Disney's newest fleet of cruise ships, The Wish, as King Triton in The Little Mermaid and Jafar in Aladdin. Matt holds a BFA in Music Theater from Elon University. Currently, Matt is developing the role of Simon in a new musical adaptation of Ang Lee's award-winning film The Wedding Banquet currently in its third year touring Taiwan. Arielle Nachtigal

A Missoula native at heart, soprano Arielle Nachtigal has appeared around the country in concert, opera, and musical theatre. After completing her undergraduate degree at the University of Montana, she received her Master of Music degree from the Eastman School of Music in Vocal Performance and Literature. She has performed the title role in Puccini's Suor Angelica, Carmela in Mese mariano, Emily in Ned Rorem's Our Town, and Countess Almaviva in Le Nozze di Figaro. She has spent summers in Austria and Italy to study German and Italian, and two summers championing operetta and Golden Age musicals with the Ohio Light Opera. In Missoula, she has recently appeared onstage as the Sour Kangaroo in Seussical the Musical and Madame de la Grande Bouche in Beauty and the Beast. Additionally, she music directs at MCT (Waitress, Annie, Young Frankenstein) and will soon head up to Bigfork, Montana, for her third summer to be the vocal music director for The Music Man. When not working on a show, she can be found behind a microphone recording audiobooks (ariellenoelevo.com). Thank you, Missoula, for your continued support of the arts!

President's Message

Bill Johnston

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the Missoula Symphony Orchestra and Chorale, Conductor Maestra Julia Tai, and Chorale Director Dean Peterson, I am delighted to welcome you to this final musical weekend of our current series. We are celebrating the vibrant spirit of Broadway and Hollywood with a program of beloved show tunes and melodies from unforgettable films.

This evening is made even more special by our collaboration with Black Tie Broadway and our guest artists Francesca Mehrotra, Matt Shingledecker, Arielle Nachtigal, and Jadi Rae Curtis. Their artistry and passion bring these iconic songs to life, and we are proud to showcase their talent alongside our orchestra and the chamber ensemble from the Missoula Symphony Chorale.

This production is made possible by our ticket holders, our season sponsors—PSP Landscaping and Whitefish Credit Union—and our weekend concert sponsor, George Bandow.

Thank you for your continued support throughout this season. We hope you enjoy this joyous music and look forward to sharing many more memorable moments with you in the future. Your support remains with us long after the last curtain call and encore.

With warmest regards,

Bill Johnston

Missoula Symphony Scholarship Fund

Continuing the grand tradition of the Missoula Symphony Guild, the Missoula Symphony Scholarship Fund is dedicated to providing scholarships for outstanding University of Montana music students who play in the Missoula Symphony Orchestra or sing in the Missoula Symphony Chorale.

This year, the Missoula Symphony Association will award more than $30,000 in scholarships to ten talented young musicians. This important commitment is made possible through the generosity of the individuals listed below, whose support directly funds these scholarships. Our 2025–2026 scholarship recipients are noted on the Orchestra Roster with a “+” sign.

SCHOLARSHIP FUND SUPPORTERS

Cook Family Scholarship

Established in 2020–2021, this scholarship is named for Will and Kay Cook. “We are happy to partner with the University of Montana and The Missoula Symphony Association to support the growth of music education in Montana and the cultural enrichment of our city.” 2025–2026 Recipients: AJ Frisque, string bass
Zoe McLain, violin, Lindsay Abelin, viola, Neveah Killsnight, viola.

The Florence Reynolds Scholarship

Named for a woman who shared her musical talent, enthusiasm and endless energy with the MSA for many years. Recipient: Kylie Heit, cello.

The Symphony Guild Presidents’ Scholarship

Named in honor of those women who have given their time and energy as Presidents of the Missoula Symphony Guild. Recipient: Garon Jones, string bass.

The Joseph Henry Scholarship

Named in honor of our Music Director Emeritus, who retired in 2007 after 21 years as Music Director of the Missoula Symphony Orchestra. Recipient: Hayley Bouchard, cello.

The Donald Carey Scholarship

Named in honor of our former Chorale Director who retired in 2006, after 18 years at his post. Recipient: Seth Griffith, cello.

The Virginia Vinal Scholarship

Named in honor of the longest-serving member of the orchestra, and her dedication to music and community. Recipient: Moe Kobold, violin.

The Lorraine Andrie Prize

Not a scholarship but a cash award, this prize is presented at the final concert of each season to a U.M. graduating senior who is deemed a truly outstanding and dedicated orchestra member. Named in honor of the founding leader of the Guild. Recipient: William (Danger) Gersh, percussion.

The Women’s Guild Tuition Scholarship

Funded by Betty Thisted and Sophie Lambros, two presidents of the former Missoula Symphony Guild, this scholarship provides full tuition, for four years, to an incoming University of Montana music major focusing on piano or percussion. Recipient: William (Danger) Gersh, percussion.

The Steve and Jane Bahls Scholarship

Established by Steve and Jane Bahls in 2023. The Steve and Jane Bahls scholarship recognizes an outstanding music student who performs in the Missoula Symphony Orchestra or in the Missoula Symphony Chorale. Recipient: Pamela Harrington, violin.

Keep The Music Alive

When you sponsor a chair, you honor our individual musician's exceptional dedication and effort, while helping to sustain high standards of professional support for our named chair musicians.

Chair sponsor benefits include:

- Recognition in each concert program book
- Invitation to Backstage Pass luncheons and other special events
- Opportunity to meet and visit with your sponsored musician at concerts

Thank you to our chair sponsors for their crucial support of our musicians

EDUCATION & COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

For more than 40 years, education and community engagement have been at the heart of the Missoula Symphony Association's mission. That commitment has grown steadily under the stewardship Music Director, Julia Tai. This season the Missoula Symphony Association is proud to present the following programs throughout the region:

UM/MSA String Camp

Registration now open! July 19–24, 2026.

For more information, visit missoulasympphony.org/education

SYMPHONY KIDS AT MISSOULA PUBLIC LIBRARY

Julia Tai presents a series of four mini-concerts that help children explore the elements of music and the instruments of the orchestra. These engaging and hands-on programs feature Symphony musicians and guest artists. Stay tuned for our 2026–2027 dates and musician schedule!

BRANCH LIBRARY CONCERTS

Small ensembles of Symphony members perform mini-concerts in Missoula County's rural communities during the summer months.

STUDENT NIGHT AT DRESS REHEARSAL

Students and families are invited to join the Symphony for the dress rehearsal preceding each Masterworks Concert, enhanced by educational materials and a short talk by Music Director, Julia Tai. Stay tuned for our 2026–2027 dates.

DOWNBEAT LOWDOWN

A free pre-concert talk before each of our Masterworks concerts with Music Director, Julia Tai.

SYMPHONY IN THE SCHOOLS

Symphony musicians visit Missoula-area middle schools and high schools to perform and coach music students.

MISSOULA YOUTH SYMPHONY SIDE-BY-SIDE

Music Director, Julia Tai works with the Missoula Youth Symphony during their rehearsals, and members of MYS perform alongside the Missoula Symphony in a Masterworks concert.
